CLASS HISTORY

In the year of 1938 the students that were here took on a new dignity and the rest of us entered as the greenest of green. Why? Because we were the Freshmen class of '38.

The students who had attended Sherrard before were now one of the four upper classmen while the rest of us were just bewildered Freshmen wandering around trying to figure out how we'd ever find our classes.

There were about 37 freshmen and for a home room teacher we had Mr. Reger as he was new too, we had an old experienced hand, Miss Briemson, for our advisor.

As our class organization head we chose Kenneth Rogerson for president. That has been years ago or so it seems our memory fades away and we fail to remember our vice president but we distinctly remember our secretary who first was Harold Burns but since Harold is the type of a fellow who just can't remember to take minutes we had to elect Hazel Merinar, and to take in, but mostly pay out money we chose Frank Perry as treasurer.

During this year we lost two of our members, Ashel Strober and Anna Jane Morris. For outside activity we had two parties, one at Christmas and one in the spring.

And so we draw to a conclusion our first year of learning about what goes on in the untoured path of '41.

To begin our Sophomore year we decided to give a Wheeling Creek girl, Betty Jane Rude, a trial at being President of our class. As Vice President, we elected Ralph McDonald; Secretary, Hazel Merinar; Treasurer, Betty Gamble; Reporter, Helen Roth, a newcomer to the class; Historian, Frances Boggess; Advisor, Miss McDonald.

For our yearly "bangup" we had a weiner roast down by Sheperds Bridge.

During this year many of our classmates fell by the wayside. Among those were: Frank Perry, Charles Terry, Pete Kudlak, Violet Riebe, Harold Burns, George Bradcovich, Benny Millhouse, John Clayton, Margaret Shea, we gained a new preacher's daughter that year, Bonnie Mae Boone, but she left us soon, also; Clara Ebberts, Archie Morris and Ralph MacDonald. Classmates gained, besides Helen were Mardelle Shook and Charles Walt.

As we journeyed along to our Junior year, we were stopped at Room No. 13, with Mr Jones as our leader. Sometimes he had to do quite a bit of "taming down," as at this stage of life we were quite "wild." The class officers were: President, Dudley Beck; Vice President, Kenneth Rogerson; Secretary, Hazel Merinar; Treasurer, Bill Teeman; Reporter, Forrest Wilson; Historian, Myrtle Yeater and Representative of Student Council, Joe Houston.

Again we lose some more members of our class, they were: Mary Ruth Reitz, Laura Lee Hupp, Walter Kudlak.

Our expectations have all been completely fulfilled as we are now so-called "big shots" or the seniors of '41. Our class officers are: President, Dudley Beck; Vice President, Kenneth Rogerson; Secretary, Myrtle Yeater; Treasurer, Bill Teeman; Reporter, Frances Boggess; Representative of Student Council, Betty Jane Rude. We have had quite a few thrilling events during the year, such as the Junior and Senior Christmas Party, and just to be different we are editing a yearbook which is the first yearbook, ever put out by our school. To leave the school just a little remembrance of this we bought a movie machine with record player excluded.

As we draw to a conclusion our last year in Sherrard, we still are looking forward to our Junior-Senior Prom, which will be May 28th and to Commencement on May 21st.

AS OUR TEACHERS KNOW THEM	AS WE KNOW THEM	HOBBY	WHERE TO FIND THEM	FAVORITE SAYING	AMBITION
Dudley Beck	"P. D."	Collecting weapons	"Yake's"	Dad-gum it	Exploring the unknown
Betty Jane Rude	"General"	"Double crossing"	Schader's Meat Market	I'll be waiting	To get married
Frances Boggress	"Baby"	Dreaming of "Genie" with the light brown hair	In the office	If happens in the best of families	To be a bigshot
Rachel Boggress	"Twin"	Making up her mind	Where she can be alone	"Nice"	To be Little Theatre's leading star
Betty Gamble	"Gumball"	"Chiseling"	Any place	You just wait	Time will tell
Helen Roth	"Babe"	Cracking gum	With her man	Hi ya honey	To conquer Sherrard
Eileen Kerr	"Peg"	Dancing	In the blue Plymouth	If I can get the car	To dance her way to Hollywood
Virginia Beherens	"Gimny"	Playing her accordian	In the attic	My stars	Not to have to cook
Francina Frazier	"Teeny"	Giggling	In the sunporlor	I wouldn't know	To get a man
Junior Myers	"Shiek"	Crabbing	Away from the women	These women are the dumbest things	Not to be bothered
Charles Walt	"Charlie"	Northern trapper	In the little car that wasn't there	Go away	To catch more
Kenneth Rogerson	"Kenny"	Wondering about the difference in twins	The Shark's nest	Watchout, here he comes	To get a Chevy that runs
Velma Burton	"Sis"	Collecting newspaper clippings	Princess Theatre	I wasn't there	Getting a home on the hill
Kenneth Fisher	"Mike"	Skunk hunting	In a muddy lane	If I don't forget	To have wavy hair
Bill Teeman	"Willie"	Picture machines	Pleasant Hill farm	Yeh, you said it	Flying low
Mardelle Shook	"Marty"	Collecting souvenirs	Commercial room	She'll be after me	To graduate commercial
Myrtle Yeater	"Myrt"	Trusting the men	Any where	Gee, Kid	To be with him
Kermit Wilson	"Kern"	Translating the class' French	Hunting	Two is better than one	French Professor
Forest Wilson	"Fobie"	Speeding	Mozart	Take it easy	To find a car that will run without gas
Chalmer Riggs	"Cockey"	Swing it	Straub's game room	You ain't lying	To sing like Bing Crosby

Our handsome, curly-haired Forest Wilson has certainly made a success of Vo-Ag teaching since graduating from W. V. U. He is now teaching in his dear old Alma Mater, Sherrard. He has just returned from New York, where he went visiting, you see his old school romance still lingers on. But a certain bird told me it was going to come to a head in the near future. June maybe?

When we were Seniors Velma Burton used to worry how she would achieve her two ambitions, a secretary and a beautician. We find she is secretary to her fiancée, Jack Merinar, a well established business man. She also waves his hair between dictation of letters. So you see all you need is a little ambition. They are planning a lovely house in Sand Hill.

My, if our leading citizen Myrtle Yeater, isn't coming down the street. She has been residing at Sherrard or should we say Benwood Ridge, with his folks? The running was smooth, until one day the Army sent back her old flame, for a visit; being the type who is never satisfied she plans to try Army life, in the not too distant future.

Are our eyes deceiving us or is that really Mardelle Shook sitting in that neat little store with her sign out reading: "We make 'em, you wear 'em, you tear 'em, we fix 'em." We always knew she liked to sew. The W. P. A. offered her the job of the Nation's sewing director, but she refused. We all think it's because of the Vice President of McGraw's. So get your dressmaking done for she may not have her sign out long.

Well, we dropped in at Sherrard today, to look at the many improvements, You know of course that in 1946 the class of '41 got together and built a Radio Station for Sherrard. Now Mr. Merinar doesn't even go home, he has night classes over the Radio, teaching other teachers how. One of the main points he brings out is, "What you should make the Seniors do," or, "You can't take it with you." We find Mr. Miller, our old class advisor has just organized The Sherrard Sympathic Orchestra.

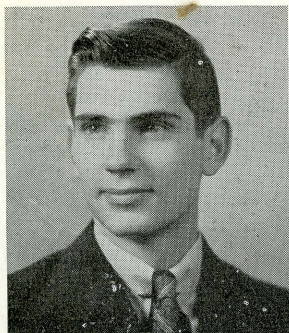

Then as we leave the air-conditioned office we see Betty Jane Rude walking briskly down the corridor. She has taken the job of Librarian and has written a book called "Maybe," has a theme song that was written by that popular man starred so often on the station P. D. 2, Chalmer "Crosby" Riggs. You know that song, "The Lady in Waiting." But if the tragedy occurs on Wheeling Creek, she won't wait long.

I received a long letter from Morgantown the other day and to my surprise it was from my old classmate, Kermit Wilson. He received his A. B. degree and specialized in French. He asked Myrtle, Dudley and Myself up for a short session. Miss McDonald went for a course this past summer, so she could sit in class and dream of the days when she knew he could translate. Those were the days.

As we ramble down to Elm Grove we see none other than Charles Walt sitting in the President's seat of the First National Bank. But he has bought a farm in Sand Hill for pass-time. Even his banking job couldn't take the sod from his blood.

We cross country again and as we go toward Texas we find Kenneth Fisher on his ranch. We talk with Jean as we wait for Kenny to come from the Spring Round-up. She says they are both happy and very successful.

As for me, well I'm doing alright. Bob and I have a cozy place for four, in the heart of Sharptown. Yes, you see I did make radio, for I have a fifteen-minute program before "Crosby" Riggs. And it keeps me jumping from station to station.

THIRTY YEARS OF PROGRESS

The construction of Sherrard Consolidated School was begun during the summer of 1911. Since the building was not near completion for the first semester of the term 1911-1912, classes were held in the hall over Sherrard Store. At that time about 31 Ninth grade and two Tenth grade students were enrolled in the school.

About the first of February a happy group of students moved into the new building which was nearly enough completed so that a part of the building could be used. The principal and teacher at that time was Mr. A. W. Curtis, later in the term Miss Wilma Speare was added as a teacher.

At the beginning of the term of 1912-1913, six grade schools were consolidated. They were: Sherrard, Chestnut-Grove, Silver-side, McCon-nels, Allens and Pine Hill. Transportation of pupils was by horse-drawn wagons with the following drivers: Adam Remeke, John Eskey, Martin Marsh, Charles Hummel and Harry Jackson. There were three teachers in the High School: Mr. A. W. Curtis, principal; Miss Ruth McCammon and Miss Wilma Speare. Grade teachers were: Miss Etta Eskey, Miss Dora Hazlett and Mr. E. K. Merinar.

At the beginning of term 1913-1914, Sunny Side School became part of the consolidation with Carl McCombs and Harry Fisher among the first drivers. A few years later Paw-Paw School on Glendale Heights also entered Sherrard Consolidated School.

At the beginning of term 1914-1915, a four-year high school was established.

From the beginning Agriculture was considered an important course and both girls and boys enrolled in the classes. However, at the begin-ning of the term 1915-1916, a course in sewing was added to the curricu-lum with Miss Virginia Dodd as teacher. This was followed by a course in cooking during the term of 1916-1917 with Miss Mabelle Patton as teacher. These courses soon became popular with the girls.

In 1929 the old building was remodeled and Vocational Home Econ-omics and Vocational Agriculture departments were added. The addition of a gymnasium made athletics more popular and since that time a basket ball team has been organized every year.

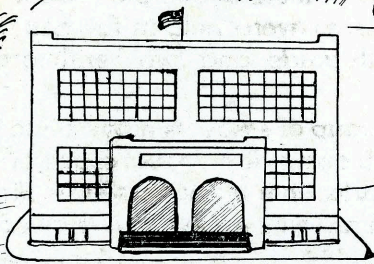

In 1929 a six-year High school was established. In 1936 a room was equipped for a Commercial department and Mrs. Effie Watson was added to the faculty as teacher.

During the summer of 1936 the Library was moved to the room that it now occupies and Miss Hilda Briemson, who was already a member of the faculty, was put in charge as a part-time librarian.

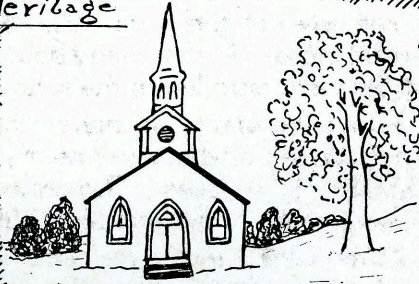

The last important event was the acceptance of the Sherrard High School by the North Central Association at their last meeting in March 1941
