HISTORY OF CLASS OF 1953

The senior class of 1953 had 42 members during their freshman year. The number of members is now 27. The home room advisor during their freshman and sophomore years was Mr. Guy W. Mason. There were no class activities during these two years although the class had officers which were as follows:

Freshman Officers:	President Vice Pres. Secretary Treasurer	Kenny Seidler Barbara Johnson Jimmy Hardman Ruth Rogerson
--------------------	---	--

At this time the class of 1953 took the big step and became upper classmen during their junior and senior years. Their junior year was quite busy for them. One of the greatest events of the year was the Junior-Senior prom and banquet. They also sponsored Christmas card and magazine selling campaigns, a bake sale, and a talent show. They were led in their activities by the following officers:

Junior Officers:	President Vice Pres. Secretary Treasurer	Barbara Johnson Kenny Seidler Joanne Lindsey Elsie Lee Lilley

The activity undertaken for their last year of school was a high school annual. Their class advisor for their junior and senior year was Miss Nancy Blair. The senior officers were:

Senior Officers:	President Vice Pres. Secretary Treasurer	Joanne Lindsey Raymond Dougherty Elsie Lee Lilley Ruth Rogerson

Class Prophecy

LATE NEWS FLASHED OF THE WORLD 1963

Los Angeles- Wayne Koerner has just accepted a position coaching the Los Angeles Lassies, a girl's basketball team. But is basketball he's coaching.

New York City - Opening tonight at the Hotel New Yorker are Gerald Plants and His Jazz 20. Leah Orum is vocalist. Raymond Dougherty was promoted to head waiter there last week.

Holland - Recently announced here by Robert Elias and Keith Hillbery is the birth of the Black Tulip. With the assistance of Le Moyne McNinch, head gardener, Robert and Keith have developed this new flower.

Chicago, Ill. - Ad seen in yesterday's paper attracted attention from almost everyone here. This is what it said:

"How To Win and Woo a Man"
"Lessons on Flirting"
"General Advice to the Lovelorn"
Hughes, Rogerson, and Co.
Experts

Washington, D.C. - Elsie Lee Lilley has recently begun her new job as private secretary to Senator John Walt. Senator Walt has been frequently mentioned as candidate for the presidency.

Somewhere in Atlantic Ocean - Special Bulletin! Ivan Magers has passed the halfway point in the construction of the bridge across the ocean. Let us hope he will succeed.

Wheeling, W.Va. - Announcement was made last week of a five million dollar hospital to be built here. The hospital is being built under the direction of Joanne Lindsey. Her two head nurses will be Evelyn Klages & Martha Mull. The hospital is to be built with the financial assistance of Judge Kenneth McNinch.

Charleston, W.Va. - A special delegation consisting of Barbara Johnson and Joan Silber appeared before Governor Lloyd Kimmins. The delegation was sent by the Marshall County Teachers' Association to request higher pay for high school teachers.

Egypt - The announcement was made of the marriage of the Princess and Richard Francis. Did he marry her for her money? Special dancers for the wedding were Betty Donato, Doris Whipkey, Texanna Hindman, and Eleanor Winters.

Miami, Florida - A new dancing school was started here yesterday by Dolly Terry. The school is predicted to be even more famous than Arthur Murrays'.

New York City - As the Queen Elizabeth docked here today, one of the first passengers to embark was Barbara Cowan, just returning from a tour of missionary work in India.

Class Will

We the Senior Class of Sherrard High School, this year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-three, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make this, our last will and testament.

ITEM I To our fond and loving teachers we leave restful nights and peaceful dreams.

ITEM II To the Juniors we leave the right to become Seniors if they all pass this year.

ITEM III To the Sophomore Class we will our ability to get good grades.

ITEM IV To the Freshman Class we leave our ability to work in Study Halls.

Raymond Daughtery wills his head of hair to his loyal friend and teacher, Mr. Stanley Ash.

To Shirley Riggle we leave Leah Crum's ability as a singer.

As a class we bequeath our brightness to Donald Armstrong. May he use it wisely.

Elsie Lee Lilley wills her ability to walk through the hall without being heard to Lois Gilmore.

To Patricia Gatewood we leave a roll of Scotch Tape. (We hope she will use it where it will do the most good).

John Walt wills his ability to sleep through classes to Donald Baker.

Martha Ellen Mull wills her giggles to Lou Hazelett.

Gerald Plants leaves his car (?) to Paul Laubert.

Evelyn Klages wills her ability to work in Study Halls to Bobby Toler.
