REMARKS:

According to Presbyterian Church Records, Hannah Hubbs (spelled Hobbs) married Franklin Wilds, both of Ohio County, West Virginia, on August 12, 1865, in West Alexander, Washington County, Pennsylvania.

August 12
Franklin Wilds - and Han nah Hobbs - Both Ohio Co W Va

The marriage is reflected in the pension records. Franklin F. Wilds had served in Battery "H" 1st West Virginia Light Artillery. After his death, Hannah applied for a pension based on his service. She would have relinquished her pension from Joseph Hubbs' service when she remarried.

It is not known if Hannah had children with Hubbs, but at a glance, it appears that she was quite young when she married Joseph Hubbs, and their marriage record hasn't yet been found. After she married Franklin Wilds (also found as Wiles), they had seven children before the 1880 census, at which time they lived in Scioto County, Ohio.
